 Kickoff: 1 p.m. Saturday at Nazareth Academy. Where: 1207 W. Ogden Avenue, LaGrange Park. Media: Broadcast live on High School Cube. 2013 records: Marian Catholic 2-6; Nazareth Academy 6-2. SSCC records: Marian Catholic 0-5; Nazareth Academy 3-2. Last week: Saint Viator 45, Marian Catholic 14; Nazareth 41, Riverside-Brookfield 0. Streaks: Spartans- 6 losses; Roadrunners- 4 wins. Last year: Nazareth 35, Marian Catholic 21. The series: The Roadrunners have won two straight to even the series record at 5-5 overall. The winningred at least 26 points in nine of the 10 contests. Notes: Marian Catholic will host the Roadrunners in freshman action on Thursday at 4:30 p.m. as the Speplete a perfect 9-0 campaign The two teams have combined for a 5-1 record in nonconference play if a Roadrunners are one of four ESCC teams to qualify for the playoffs, with seven of nine teams still elig artan quarterback Patrick Schmidt needs 210 passing yards to surpass 1,000 for the season Marian k born and Carlos Gallegos are a perfect 21-6r-21 on conversion kicks this year Nearly half of Marian's pleted passes this year have gone to senior Ki-Jana Crawford with 41 receptions Alter allowing 42 p back games, Nazareth has yielded just 42 total points during a current four-game winning streak. 	the Spartans e play this yea still eligible larian kickers	4:30 p.m. as the Spar noconference play thi nine teams still eligibl season Marian kicl rly half of Marian's 8 After allowing 42 poi	p.m. as the Spartan nference play this ye teams still eligible son Marian kickers alf of Marian's 87 r allowing 42 points
Media: Broadcast live on High School Cube . 2013 records: Marian Catholic 0-5; Nazareth Academy 6-2. 5SCC records: Marian Catholic 0-5; Nazareth Academy 3-2. .ast week: Saint Viator 45, Marian Catholic 14; Nazareth 41, Riverside-Brookfield 0. Streaks: Spartans- 6 losses; Roadrunners- 4 wins. .ast year: Nazareth 35, Marian Catholic 21. The series: The Roadrunners have won two straight to even the series record at 5-5 overall. The winnin ored at least 26 points in nine of the 10 contests. Notes: Marian Catholic will host the Roadrunners in freshman action on Thursday at 4:30 p.m. as the Sp mplete a perfect 9-0 campaign The two teams have combined for a 5-1 record in nonconference play i e Roadrunners are one of four ESCC teams to qualify for the playoffs, with seven of nine teams still elig artan quarterback Patrick Schmidt needs 210 passing yards to surpass 1,000 for the season Marian k born and Carlos Gallegos are a perfect 21-for-21 on conversion kicks this year Nearly half of Marian's mpleted passes this year have gone to senior Ki-Jana Crawford with 41 receptions After allowing 42 p	the Spartans e play this yea still eligible larian kickers	4:30 p.m. as the Spar noconference play thi nine teams still eligibl season Marian kicl rly half of Marian's 8 After allowing 42 poi	p.m. as the Spartan nference play this ye teams still eligible son Marian kickers alf of Marian's 87 r allowing 42 points
ESCC records: Marian Catholic 0-5; Nazareth Academy 3-2. ast week: Saint Viator 45, Marian Catholic 14; Nazareth 41, Riverside-Brookfield 0. Streaks: Spartans- 6 losses; Roadrunners- 4 wins. ast year: Nazareth 35, Marian Catholic 21. The series: The Roadrunners have won two straight to even the series record at 5-5 overall. The winnin- ored at least 26 points in nine of the 10 contests. Notes: Marian Catholic will host the Roadrunners in freshman action on Thursday at 4:30 p.m. as the Sp mplete a perfect 9-0 campaign The two teams have combined for a 5-1 record in nonconference play 1 e Roadrunners are one of four ESCC teams to qualify for the playoffs, with seven of nine teams still elig artan quarterback Patrick Schmidt needs 210 passing yards to surpass 1,000 for the season Marian k born and Carlos Gallegos are a perfect 21-for-21 on conversion kicks this year Nearly half of Marian's mpleted passes this year have gone to senior Ki-Jana Crawford with 41 receptions After allowing 42 p	the Spartans e play this yea still eligible larian kickers	4:30 p.m. as the Spar noconference play thi nine teams still eligibl season Marian kicl rly half of Marian's 8 After allowing 42 poi	p.m. as the Spartan nference play this ye teams still eligible son Marian kickers alf of Marian's 87 r allowing 42 points
Last week: Saint Viator 45, Marian Catholic 14; Nazareth 41, Riverside-Brookfield 0. Streaks: Spartans- 6 losses; Roadrunners- 4 wins. Last year: Nazareth 35, Marian Catholic 21. The series: The Roadrunners have won two straight to even the series record at 5-5 overall. The winnin- ored at least 26 points in nine of the 10 contests. Notes: Marian Catholic will host the Roadrunners in freshman action on Thursday at 4:30 p.m. as the Sp mplete a perfect 9-0 campaign The two teams have combined for a 5-1 record in nonconference play 1 e Roadrunners are one of four ESCC teams to qualify for the playoffs, with seven of nine teams still elig artan quarterback Patrick Schmidt needs 210 passing yards to surpass 1,000 for the season Marian k born and Carlos Gallegos are a perfect 21-for-21 on conversion kicks this year Nearly half of Marian's mpleted passes this year have gone to senior Ki-Jana Crawford with 41 receptions After allowing 42 p	the Spartans e play this yea still eligible larian kickers	4:30 p.m. as the Spar noconference play thi nine teams still eligibl season Marian kicl rly half of Marian's 8 After allowing 42 poi	p.m. as the Spartan nference play this ye teams still eligible son Marian kickers alf of Marian's 87 r allowing 42 points
Last year: Nazareth 35, Marian Catholic 21. The series: The Roadrunners have won two straight to even the series record at 5-5 overall. The winning ored at least 26 points in nine of the 10 contests. Notes: Marian Catholic will host the Roadrunners in freshman action on Thursday at 4:30 p.m. as the Sp mplete a perfect 9-0 campaign The two teams have combined for a 5-1 record in nonconference play for e Roadrunners are one of four ESCC teams to qualify for the playoffs, with seven of nine teams still eligs artan quarterback Patrick Schmidt needs 210 passing yards to surpass 1,000 for the season Marian k born and Carlos Gallegos are a perfect 21-for-21 on conversion kicks this year Nearly half of Marian's mpleted passes this year have gone to senior Ki-Jana Crawford with 41 receptions After allowing 42 p	the Spartans e play this yea still eligible larian kickers	4:30 p.m. as the Spar noconference play thi nine teams still eligibl season Marian kicl rly half of Marian's 8 After allowing 42 poi	p.m. as the Spartan nference play this ye teams still eligible son Marian kickers alf of Marian's 87 r allowing 42 points bored at least 26 points in nine of the 10 contests. Notes: Marian Catholic will host the Roadrunners in freshman action on Thursday at 4:30 p.m. as the Sp mplete a perfect 9-0 campaign The two teams have combined for a 5-1 record in nonconference play i e Roadrunners are one of four ESCC teams to qualify for the playoffs, with seven of nine teams still elig artan quarterback Patrick Schmidt needs 210 passing yards to surpass 1,000 for the season Marian k born and Carlos Gallegos are a perfect 21-for-21 on conversion kicks this year Nearly half of Marian's mpleted passes this year have gone to senior Ki-Jana Crawford with 41 receptions After allowing 42 p	the Spartans e play this yea still eligible larian kickers	4:30 p.m. as the Spar noconference play thi nine teams still eligibl season Marian kicl rly half of Marian's 8 After allowing 42 poi	p.m. as the Spartan nference play this ye teams still eligible son Marian kickers alf of Marian's 87 r allowing 42 points
Notes: Marian Catholic will host the Roadrunners in freshman action on Thursday at 4:30 p.m. as the Sp mplete a perfect 9-0 campaign The two teams have combined for a 5-1 record in nonconference play i e Roadrunners are one of four ESCC teams to qualify for the playoffs, with seven of nine teams still elig artan quarterback Patrick Schmidt needs 210 passing yards to surpass 1,000 for the season Marian k born and Carlos Gallegos are a perfect 21-for-21 on conversion kicks this year Nearly half of Marian's mpleted passes this year have gone to senior Ki-Jana Crawford with 41 receptions After allowing 42 p	e play this yea still eligible larian kickers	nconference play thi nine teams still eligibl season Marian kicl rly half of Marian's 8 After allowing 42 poin	nference play this ye teams still eligible son Marian kickers half of Marian's 87 r allowing 42 points
e Roadrunners are one of four ESCC teams to qualify for the playoffs, with seven of nine teams still elig artan quarterback Patrick Schmidt needs 210 passing yards to surpass 1,000 for the season Marian k born and Carlos Gallegos are a perfect 21-for-21 on conversion kicks this year Nearly half of Marian's mpleted passes this year have gone to senior Ki-Jana Crawford with 41 receptions After allowing 42 p	still eligible larian kickers	nine teams still eligibl season Marian kicl rly half of Marian's 8 After allowing 42 poi	teams still eligible son Marian kickers half of Marian's 87 r allowing 42 points
artan quarterback Patrick Schmidt needs 210 passing yards to surpass 1,000 for the season Marian k born and Carlos Gallegos are a perfect 21-for-21 on conversion kicks this year Nearly half of Marian's mpleted passes this year have gone to senior Ki-Jana Crawford with 41 receptions After allowing 42 p	larian kickers	season Marian kicl rly half of Marian's 8 After allowing 42 poi	son Marian kickers half of Marian's 87 r allowing 42 points
mpleted passes this year have gone to senior Ki-Jana Crawford with 41 receptions After allowing 42 p		After allowing 42 poir	r allowing 42 points back games, Nazareth has yielded just 42 total points during a current four-game winning streak.	ng 42 points in	ning streak.	streak.
lct. 26 1 2 3 4 T	Total	4 To	4 Total
IARIAN CATHOLIC SPARTANS 0 7 14 0		0	0
t NAZARETH ACADEMY ROADRUNNERS 7 17 14 14		14
			14 📕
Nazareth Academy.		Crawford pulls in a p	wford pulls in a pass
Nazareth Academy.	C SELDACK AL	52-21 ESCC setback	wford pulls in a pass
	C SCIDACK AL	52-21 ESCC setback	wford pulls in a pass
	C Selback at	52-21 ESCC setback	wford pulls in a pass
	C Selback at	52-21 ESCC setback	wford pulls in a pass
	C Selback at	52-21 ESCC setback	wford pulls in a pass
		52-21 ESCC setback	wford pulls in a pass
		52-21 ESCC setback	wford pulls in a pass
H N		52-21 ESCC setback	wford pulls in a pass
		52-21 ESCC setback	wford pulls in a pass
		52-21 ESCC setback	wford pulls in a pass
		52-21 ESCC setback	wford pulls in a pass
		52-21 ESCC setback	wford pulls in a pass
		52-21 ESĊC setbac	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at
partans foiled at Nazareth Academy in ESCC, season finale		52-21 ESĊC setbac	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at
Figure Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court.		52-21 ESĊC setbad	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at
Gi-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving ended	nale	52-21 ESĊC setbad my. I SON finale court.	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at pon finale
Gi-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving e field.	1ale aving everyth	52-21 ESCC setback my. I SON finale court. ny without leaving eve	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at Don finale rt. thout leaving everyt
Gi-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving ended	1ale aving everyth	52-21 ESCC setback my. I SON finale court. ny without leaving eve	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at Don finale rt. thout leaving everyt
Gi-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving e field. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans sho de with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to	Tale aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclu	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON finale court. ny without leaving ever veral Spartans show ESCC decision to co	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC se
Ki-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving e field. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans sho de with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to nference slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventu	Tale aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclu	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON finale court. ny without leaving ever veral Spartans show ESCC decision to co	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC se
Ki-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving e field. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans sho de with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to nference slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventus ong freshman team that finished the campaign 9-0 with an ESCC championship.	nale aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclu eventually bel	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON finale court. by without leaving ever veral Spartans show ESCC decision to cr to rebound eventual	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC se
Ki-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving e field. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans sho de with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to nference slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventu	nale aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclu eventually bel	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON finale court. by without leaving ever veral Spartans show ESCC decision to cr to rebound eventual	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC se
Ki-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving end field. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans sho de with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to nference slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventue ong freshman team that finished the campaign 9-0 with an ESCC championship. Crawford did all in his power to halt a now seven-game losing streak, scoring once on a 69-yard receptio a 45-yard interception return.	nale aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclu eventually bel eception and a the last three	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON finale court. by without leaving every veral Spartans show ESCC decision to co to rebound eventuall a 69-yard reception s in each of the last t	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC se
Ki-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving e field. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans sho de with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to nference slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventus ong freshman team that finished the campaign 9-0 with an ESCC championship. Crawford did all in his power to halt a now seven-game losing streak, scoring once on a 69-yard receptio a 45-yard interception return. However, the Spartans couldn't slow down Nazareth (7-2, 4-2), which scored 14 points in each of the las arters behind a pair of 100-yard rushers and a passing game that netted 120 yards on just five completion	nale aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclu eventually bel eception and a the last three ympletions.	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON finale court. Iy without leaving ever veral Spartans show ESCC decision to co to rebound eventual a 69-yard reception s in each of the last t n just five completion	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC se
Gi-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving ended e field. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans sho de with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to inference slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventue ong freshman team that finished the campaign 9-0 with an ESCC championship. Crawford di all in his power to halt a now seven-game losing streak, scoring once on a 69-yard receptio a 45-yard interception return. However, the Spartans couldn't slow down Nazareth (7-2, 4-2), which scored 14 points in each of the las arters behind a pair of 100-yard rushers and a passing game that netted 120 yards on just five completio With solid protection from an offensive line of Gage Bonczek, Justin Avant, Paul Lamb, Jarek Harrington	nale aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclu eventually bel eception and a the last three ympletions.	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON finale court. Iy without leaving ever veral Spartans show ESCC decision to co to rebound eventual a 69-yard reception s in each of the last t n just five completion	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC se
Ki-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving e field. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans sho de with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to nference slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventus ong freshman team that finished the campaign 9-0 with an ESCC championship. Crawford did all in his power to halt a now seven-game losing streak, scoring once on a 69-yard receptio a 45-yard interception return. However, the Spartans couldn't slow down Nazareth (7-2, 4-2), which scored 14 points in each of the las arters behind a pair of 100-yard rushers and a passing game that netted 120 yards on just five completion	nale aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclu eventually bel eception and a the last three mpletions. rington and B	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON Finale court. by without leaving every veral Spartans show ESCC decision to cr to rebound eventuall a 69-yard reception s in each of the last th i just five completion b, Jarek Harrington a	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESC setback at
Gi-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving effeld. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans sho de with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to nference slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventus ong freshman team that finished the campaign 9-0 with an ESCC championship. Zrawford did all in his power to halt a now seven-game losing streak, scoring once on a 69-yard receptio a 45-yard interception return. However, the Spartans couldn't slow down Nazareth (7-2, 4-2), which scored 14 points in each of the las arters behind a pair of 100-yard rushers and a passing game that netted 120 yards on just five completit Vith solid protection from an offensive line of Gage Bonczek, Justin Avant, Paul Lamb, Jarek Harrington chardson, Marian had one if its better offensive efforts in awhile. Trailing just 7-0 in the early going, the Spartans should have known it wasn't their day when a 17-play, 84 ded with a failed fourth-down attempt from the Nazareth 2-yard line.	nale aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclu eventually bel eception and a the last three mpletions. rington and Bi play, 85-yard	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON finale court. my without leaving ever veral Spartans show ESCC decision to cr to rebound eventuall a 69-yard reception s in each of the last t n just five completion , Jarek Harrington al when a 17-play, 85-1	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 20 finale rt. ithout leaving everyt at Spartans showed p CC decision to conc abound eventually be 2-yard reception and each of the last thre it five completions. rek Harrington and I an a 17-play, 85-yard
Gi-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving efficient of field. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans sho de with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to inference slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventus ong freshman team that finished the campaign 9-0 with an ESCC championship. Crawford did all in his power to halt a now seven-game losing streak, scoring once on a 69-yard receptio a 45-yard interception return. However, the Spartans couldn't slow down Nazareth (7-2, 4-2), which scored 14 points in each of the las arters behind a pair of 100-yard rushers and a passing game that netted 120 yards on just five completic vith solid protection from an offensive line of Gage Bonczek, Justin Avant, Paul Lamb, Jarek Harrington chardson, Marian had one if its better offensive efforts in awhile. Trailing just 7-0 in the early going, the Spartans should have known it wasn't their day when a 17-play, 80 ded with a failed fourth-down attempt from the Nazareth 2-yard line. The next long drive netted better results, as the Spartans were more efficient in needing just six plays to	Tale aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclu eventually bel eception and a the last three mpletions. rington and Bi play, 85-yard lays to travel b	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON Finale court. ay without leaving every veral Spartans show ESCC decision to co to rebound eventuall a 69-yard reception s in each of the last th n just five completion b, Jarek Harrington al when a 17-play, 85-1 ng just six plays to tra	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESC setback at
Ki-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving efficied. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans should with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to nference slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventual org freshman team that finished the campaign 9-0 with an ESCC championship. Crawford did all in his power to halt a now seven-game losing streak, scoring once on a 69-yard reception a 45-yard interception return. However, the Spartans couldn't slow down Nazareth (7-2, 4-2), which scored 14 points in each of the las arters behind a pair of 100-yard rushers and a passing game that netted 120 yards on just five completive With solid protection from an offensive line of Gage Bonczek, Justin Avant, Paul Lamb, Jarek Harrington chardson, Marian had one if its better offensive efforts in awhile. Trailing just 7-0 in the early going, the Spartans should have known it wasn't their day when a 17-play, 82 ded with a failed fourth-down attempt from the Nazareth 2-yard line. The next long drive netted better results, as the Spartans were more efficient in needing just six plays to rds for a score. Passing plays churned out four first downs on the drive, as Marian concluded the scoring.	Tale aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclu eventually bel eception and a the last three mpletions. rington and Bi play, 85-yard lays to travel b	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON Finale court. ay without leaving every veral Spartans show ESCC decision to co to rebound eventuall a 69-yard reception s in each of the last th n just five completion b, Jarek Harrington al when a 17-play, 85-1 ng just six plays to tra	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC setback at 23 ESCC setback at 24 ESCC setback at 24 ESCC setback at 25 ESCC setback at 26 ESCC setback at 27 ESCC setback at 28 ESCC setback at 29 ESCC setback at 29 ESCC setback at 20 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC se
Gi-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving efficient of field. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans sho de with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to inference slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventus ong freshman team that finished the campaign 9-0 with an ESCC championship. Crawford did all in his power to halt a now seven-game losing streak, scoring once on a 69-yard receptio a 45-yard interception return. However, the Spartans couldn't slow down Nazareth (7-2, 4-2), which scored 14 points in each of the las arters behind a pair of 100-yard rushers and a passing game that netted 120 yards on just five completic vith solid protection from an offensive line of Gage Bonczek, Justin Avant, Paul Lamb, Jarek Harrington chardson, Marian had one if its better offensive efforts in awhile. Trailing just 7-0 in the early going, the Spartans should have known it wasn't their day when a 17-play, 80 ded with a failed fourth-down attempt from the Nazareth 2-yard line. The next long drive netted better results, as the Spartans were more efficient in needing just six plays to	Dale aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclue eventually bel eception and a the last three mpletions. rington and Bi play, 85-yard lays to travel a scoring marci	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON Finale court. by without leaving every veral Spartans show ESCC decision to co to rebound eventuall a 69-yard reception s in each of the last the n just five completion b, Jarek Harrington all when a 17-play, 85-1 ng just six plays to the notuded the scoring r	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 20 finale rt. 20 decision to conce 20 decision to conce
Gi-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving endities of field. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans should with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to inference slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventual ong freshman team that finished the campaign 9-0 with an ESCC championship. Crawford did all in his power to halt a now seven-game losing streak, scoring once on a 69-yard reception a 45-yard interception return. However, the Spartans couldn't slow down Nazareth (7-2, 4-2), which scored 14 points in each of the las arters behind a pair of 100-yard rushers and a passing game that netted 120 yards on just five completion chardson, Marian had one if its better offensive efforts in awhile. Trailing just 7-0 in the early going, the Spartans should have known it wasn't their day when a 17-play, 80 ded with a failed fourth-down attempt from the Nazareth 2-yard interception just six plays to rds for a score. Passing plays churned out four first downs on the drive, as Marian concluded the scoring trick Schmid's 26-yard toss to Emilio Garza. However, Nazareth took some wind out of the Marian sails, as Michael Hillsman (7-for-7 conversion kick yard field goal to send the Roadrunners into intermission with a 24-7 command.	aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclu eventually bel eception and a the last three mpletions. rington and Bi play, 85-yard lays to travel l scoring marci	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON Finale court. by without leaving every veral Spartans show ESCC decision to cr to rebound eventuall a 69-yard reception s in each of the last th just five completion b, Jarek Harrington al when a 17-play, 85- ng just six plays to tra- ncluded the scoring r -7 conversion kicks)	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC se
 Ki-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving effield. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans should with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to netre slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventual ong freshman team that finished the campaign 9-0 with an ESCC championship. Crawford did all in his power to halt a now seven-game losing streak, scoring once on a 69-yard reception a 45-yard interception return. However, the Spartans couldn't slow down Nazareth (7-2, 4-2), which scored 14 points in each of the las arters behind a pair of 100-yard rushers and a passing game that netted 120 yards on just five completive With solid protection from an offensive line of Gage Bonczek, Justin Avant, Paul Lamb, Jarek Harrington Shardson, Marian had one if its better offensive efforts in awhile. Trailing just 7-0 in the early going, the Spartans should have known it wasn't their day when a 17-play, 84 ded with a failed fourth-down attempt from the Nazareth 2-yard line. The next long drive netted better results, as the Spartans were more efficient in needing just six plays to rds for a score. Passing plays churned out four first downs on the drive, as Marian concluded the scoring trick Schmidt's 26-yard toss to Emilio Garza. However, Nazareth took some wind out of the Marian sails, as Michael Hillsman (7-for-7 conversion kicks yard field goal to send the Roadrunners into intermission with a 24-7 command. 	aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclu eventually bel eception and a the last three mpletions. rington and Bi play, 85-yard lays to travel l scoring marci	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON Finale court. by without leaving every veral Spartans show ESCC decision to cr to rebound eventuall a 69-yard reception s in each of the last th just five completion b, Jarek Harrington al when a 17-play, 85- ng just six plays to tra- ncluded the scoring r -7 conversion kicks)	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC se
Gi-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving endities of field. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans should with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to inference slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventual ong freshman team that finished the campaign 9-0 with an ESCC championship. Crawford did all in his power to halt a now seven-game losing streak, scoring once on a 69-yard reception a 45-yard interception return. However, the Spartans couldn't slow down Nazareth (7-2, 4-2), which scored 14 points in each of the las arters behind a pair of 100-yard rushers and a passing game that netted 120 yards on just five completion chardson, Marian had one if its better offensive efforts in awhile. Trailing just 7-0 in the early going, the Spartans should have known it wasn't their day when a 17-play, 80 ded with a failed fourth-down attempt from the Nazareth 2-yard interception just six plays to rds for a score. Passing plays churned out four first downs on the drive, as Marian concluded the scoring trick Schmid's 26-yard toss to Emilio Garza. However, Nazareth took some wind out of the Marian sails, as Michael Hillsman (7-for-7 conversion kick yard field goal to send the Roadrunners into intermission with a 24-7 command.	aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclu eventually bel eception and a the last three ompletions. rington and Bi play, 85-yard lays to travel a scoring marci on kicks) boot zareth benefitt	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON Finale court. by without leaving every veral Spartans show ESCC decision to cr to rebound eventuall a 69-yard reception s in each of the last th just five completion a, Jarek Harrington al when a 17-play, 85 ng just six plays to transci neluded the scoring r -7 conversion kicks) ing half, Nazareth be	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 20 Dr finale rt. 11 Spartans showed p 20 C decision to conce 20 decision to c
Gi-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving effeld. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans sho de with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to inference slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventus ong freshman team that finished the campaign 9-0 with an ESCC championship. Crawford dial lin his power to halt a now seven-game losing streak, scoring once on a 69-yard receptio a 45-yard interception return. However, the Spartans couldn't slow down Nazareth (7-2, 4-2), which scored 14 points in each of the las arters behind a pair of 100-yard rushers and a passing game that netted 120 yards on just five completio Vith solid protection from an offensive line of Gage Bonczek, Justin Avant, Paul Lamb, Jarek Harrington shardson, Marian had one if its better offensive efforts in awhile. Trailing just 7-0 in the early going, the Spartans should have known it wasn't their day when a 17-play, 80 ded with a failed fourth-down attempt from the Nazareth 2-yard line. The next long drive netted better results, as the Spartans were more efficient in needing just six plays to rds for a score. Passing plays churned out four first downs on the drive, as Marian concluded the scoring trick Schmidt's 26-yard toss to Emilio Garza. However, Nazareth took some wind out of the Marian sails, as Michael Hillsman (7-for-7 conversion kicks -yard field goal to send the Roadrunners into intermission with a 24-7 command. While Marian engineered the two long drives that netted just seven points in the opening half, Nazareth to m short fields for touchdown scoring drives of 46, 44 and 34 yards.	aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclu eventually bel eception and a the last three mpletions. rington and Bi play, 85-yard lays to travel 8 scoring marci on kicks) boot zareth benefitt Marian snap o	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON Finale court. ay without leaving every veral Spartans show ESCC decision to cr to rebound eventuall a 69-yard reception s in each of the last th h just five completion b, Jarek Harrington al when a 17-play, 85- ng just six plays to tra- ncluded the scoring r -7 conversion kicks) ing half, Nazareth be on the first Marian si	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC setback at 23 ESCC setback at 24 ESCC setback at 24 ESCC setback at 25 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC se
Gi-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving effeld. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans sho de with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to inference slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventus ong freshman team that finished the campaign 9-0 with an ESCC championship. Zrawford did all in his power to halt a now seven-game losing streak, scoring once on a 69-yard receptio a 45-yard interception return. However, the Spartans couldn't slow down Nazareth (7-2, 4-2), which scored 14 points in each of the las arters behind a pair of 100-yard rushers and a passing game that netted 120 yards on just five completic Vith solid protection from an offensive line of Gage Bonczek, Justin Avant, Paul Lamb, Jarek Harrington chardson, Marian had one if its better offensive efforts in awhile. Trailing just 7-0 in the early going, the Spartans should have known it wasn't their day when a 17-play, 80 ded with a failed fourth-down attempt from the Nazareth 2-yard line. The next long drive netted better results, as the Spartans were more efficient in needing just six plays to rds for a score. Passing plays churned out four first downs on the drive, as Marian concluded the scoring trick Schmidt's 26-yard toss to Emilio Garza. However, Nazareth took some wind out of the Marian sails, as Michael Hillsman (7-for-7 conversion kicks -yard field goal to send the Roadrunners into intermission with a 24-7 command. While Marian engineered the two long drives that netted just seven points in the opening half, Nazareth the m short fields for touchdown scoring drives of 46, 44 and 34 yards. Vazareth extended its halftime momentum quickly in the third quarter. An interception on the first Marian cond half	aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclu eventually bel eception and a the last three mpletions. rington and Bi play, 85-yard lays to travel 4 scoring marci on kicks) boot zareth benefitt Marian snap o ential to 31-7.	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON Finale court. Ny without leaving every veral Spartans show ESCC decision to co to rebound eventuall a 69-yard reception s in each of the last th n just five completion a, Jarek Harrington al when a 17-play, 85-1 ng just six plays to transluded the scoring r -7 conversion kicks) ing half, Nazareth be on the first Marian si d the differential to 3	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESC setback a
Gi-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving et if field. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans sho de with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to inference slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventue ong freshman team that finished the campaign 9-0 with an ESCC championship. Crawford dial lin his power to halt a now seven-game losing streak, scoring once on a 69-yard receptio a 45-yard interception return. However, the Spartans couldn't slow down Nazareth (7-2, 4-2), which scored 14 points in each of the las arters behind a pair of 100-yard rushers and a passing game that netted 120 yards on just five completio chardson, Marian had one if its better offensive efforts in awhile. Trailing just 7-0 in the early going, the Spartans should have known it wasn't their day when a 17-play, 80 ded with a failed fourth-down attempt from the Nazareth 2-yard line. The next long drive netted better results, as the Spartans were more efficient in needing just six plays to rds for a score. Passing plays churned out four first downs on the drive, as Marian concluded the scoring trick Schmidt's 26-yard toss to Emilio Garza. However, Nazareth took some wind out of the Marian sails, as Michael Hillsman (7-for-7 conversion kicks -yard field goal to send the Roadrunners into intermission with a 24-7 command. While Marian engineered the two long drives of 46, 44 and 34 yards. Nazareth extended its halftime momentum quickly in the third quarter. An interception on the first Marian cond half set up the home team 21 yards away and the Roadrunners quickly extended the differential to hat's when Crawford single-handedly tried to keep the Spartans in the contest.	aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclu- eventually bel eception and a the last three mpletons. rington and Bi play, 85-yard lays to travel 8 scoring marci- on kicks) boot zareth benefitt Marian snap o intial to 31-7. ack Dillon Bui	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON Finale court. by without leaving every veral Spartans show ESCC decision to cr to rebound eventuall a 69-yard reception s in each of the last th just five completion b, Jarek Harrington al when a 17-play, 85 ing just six plays to transl ncluded the scoring re- r-7 conversion kicks) ing half, Nazareth be on the first Marian sid d the differential to 3 down, halfback Dilloo	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC setback at 23 ESCC setback at 24 ESCC setback at 25 ESCC setback at 26 ESCC setback at 27 ESCC setback at 28 ESCC setback at 29 ESCC setback at 29 ESCC setback at 20 ESCC setback at 20 ESCC setback at 20 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC se
Gi-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving endities of the theorem of the team	aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclu- eventually bel eception and a the last three mpletons. rington and Bi play, 85-yard lays to travel 8 scoring marci- on kicks) boot zareth benefitt Marian snap o intial to 31-7. ack Dillon Bui	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON Finale court. by without leaving every veral Spartans show ESCC decision to cr to rebound eventuall a 69-yard reception s in each of the last th just five completion b, Jarek Harrington al when a 17-play, 85 ing just six plays to transl ncluded the scoring re- r-7 conversion kicks) ing half, Nazareth be on the first Marian sid d the differential to 3 down, halfback Dilloo	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC setback at 23 ESCC setback at 24 ESCC setback at 25 ESCC setback at 26 ESCC setback at 27 ESCC setback at 28 ESCC setback at 29 ESCC setback at 29 ESCC setback at 20 ESCC setback at 20 ESCC setback at 20 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC se
Gi-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving effeld. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans sho de with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to inference slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventus ong freshman team that finished the campaign 9-0 with an ESCC championship. Crawford dial lin his power to halt a now seven-game losing streak, scoring once on a 69-yard receptio a 45-yard interception return. However, the Spartans couldn't slow down Nazareth (7-2, 4-2), which scored 14 points in each of the las arters behind a pair of 100-yard rushers and a passing game that netted 120 yards on just five completio Vith solid protection from an offensive line of Gage Bonczek, Justin Avant, Paul Lamb, Jarek Harrington shardson, Marian had one if its better offensive efforts in awhile. Trailing just 7-0 in the early going, the Spartans should have known it wasn't their day when a 17-play, 84 ded with a failed fourth-down attempt from the Nazareth 2-yard line. The next long drive netted better results, as the Spartans were more efficient in needing just six plays to rds for a score. Passing plays churned out four first downs on the drive, as Marian concluded the scoring trick Schmidt's 26-yard toss to Emilio Garza. However, Nazareth took some wind out of the Marian sails, as Michael Hillsman (7-for-7 conversion kick -yard field goal to send the Roadrunners into intermission with a 24-7 command. While Marian engineered the two long drives of 46, 44 and 34 yards. Azareth extended its halftime momentum quickly in the third quarter. An interception on the first Marian cond half set up the home team 21 yards away and the Roadrunners quickly extended the differential to that's when Crawfor	nale aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclue eventually bel eception and a the last three ompletions. rington and Bi play, 85-yard lays to travel 4 scoring march on kicks) boot zareth benefitt Marian snap o ential to 31-7. ack Dillon Bui e to pull Maria	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON Finale court. by without leaving every veral Spartans show ESCC decision to cr to rebound eventuall a 69-yard reception s in each of the last the n just five completion b, Jarek Harrington all when a 17-play, 85-1 ng just six plays to transl ncluded the scoring r -7 conversion kicks) ing half, Nazareth be on the first Marian sid d the differential to 3 down, halfback Dillon 9-yard score to pull N	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC se
Gi-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving efficit. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans should with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to inference slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventuation of freshman team that finished the campaign 9-0 with an ESCC championship. Crawford did all in his power to halt a now seven-game losing streak, scoring once on a 69-yard reception a 45-yard interception return. However, the Spartans couldn't slow down Nazareth (7-2, 4-2), which scored 14 points in each of the las arters behind a pair of 100-yard rushers and a passing game that netted 120 yards on just five completivity with a lailed fourth-down attempt from the Nazareth 2-yard line. Trailing just 7-0 in the early going, the Spartans should have known it wasn't their day when a 17-play, 8t ded with a failed fourth-down attempt from the Nazareth 2-yard line. The next long drive netted better results, as the Spartans subcours in a Marian concluded the scoring trick Schmidt's 26-yard toss to Emilio Garza. Jowever, Nazareth took some wind out of the Marian sails, as Michael Hillsman (7-for-7 conversion kicks-yard field goal to send the Roadrunners into intermission with a 24-7 command. White Marian engineered the two long drives of 46, 44 and 34 yards. Vazareth extended its halftime momentum quickly in the third quarter. An interception on the first Marian cond half set up the home team 21 yards away and the Roadrunners on the contest. Ward field goal to sand thit a streaking Crawford down the left sideline for a 69-yard score to pultin 31-14. Vazareth extended the lead with is longest scoring drive o	aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclu eventually bel eception and a the last three mpletions. rington and Bi play, 85-yard lays to travel 8 scoring marci on kicks) boot zareth benefitt Marian snap o intial to 31-7. ack Dillon Bui e to pull Maria more bleak fo	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON FINALE court. ay without leaving every veral Spartans show ESCC decision to cr to rebound eventuall a 69-yard reception s in each of the last t i just five completion b, Jarek Harrington al when a 17-play, 85-y ng just six plays to tra- ncluded the scoring r -7 conversion kicks) ing half, Nazareth be on the first Marian si d the differential to 3 down, halfback Dilloo 9-yard score to pull M	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC setback at 23 ESCC setback at 24 ESCC setback at 25 ESCC setback at 26 ESCC setback at 27 ESCC setback at 27 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC se
Gi-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving effet. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans sho de with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to inference slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventus ong freshman team that finished the campaign 9-0 with an ESCC championship. Crawford dial lin his power to halt a now seven-game losing streak, scoring once on a 69-yard receptio a 45-yard interception return. However, the Spartans couldn't slow down Nazareth (7-2, 4-2), which scored 14 points in each of the las arters behind a pair of 100-yard rushers and a passing game that netted 120 yards on just five completio Vith solid protection from an offensive line of Gage Bonczek, Justin Avant, Paul Lamb, Jarek Harrington shardson, Marian had one if its better offensive efforts in awhile. Trailing just 7-0 in the early going, the Spartans should have known it wasn't their day when a 17-play, 80 ded with a failed fourth-down attempt from the Nazareth 2-yard line. The next long drive netted better results, as the Spartans were more efficient in needing just six plays to rds for a score. Passing plays churned out four first downs on the drive, as Marian concluded the scoring trick Schmidt's 26-yard toss to Emilio Garza. However, Nazareth took some wind out of the Marian sails, as Michael Hillsman (7-for-7 conversion kicks -yard field goal to send the Roadrunners into intermission with a 24-7 command. While Marian engineered the two long drives that nett dy avats. Azareth extended its halftime momentum quickly in the third quarter. An interception on the first Marian cond half set up the home team 21 yards away and the Roadrunners quickly extended the differential to that's when Crawford si	aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclue eventually bel eception and a the last three ompletions. rington and Bi play, 85-yard lays to travel a scoring marci on kicks) boot zareth benefitt Marian snap o ential to 31-7. ack Dillon Bui e to pull Maria more bleak fo hris Taborn	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON Finale court. Ny without leaving every veral Spartans show ESCC decision to cr to rebound eventuall a 69-yard reception s in each of the last th just five completion o, Jarek Harrington ai when a 17-play, 85-1 ng just six plays to transl ncluded the scoring r -7 conversion kicks) ing half, Nazareth be on the first Marian si d the differential to 3 down, halfback Dillou 9-yard score to pull M ngs looked more blea a paydirt. Chris Tabo -21.	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC setback at 23 ESCC setback at 24 ESCC setback at 25 ESCC setback at 26 ESCC setback at 27 ESCC setback at 28 ESCC setback at 29 ESCC setback at 20 ESCC setback at 20 ESCC setback at 20 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC setback at 23 ESCC setback at 24 ESCC setback at 25 ESCC setback at 26 ESCC setback at 27 ESCC setback at 28 ESCC setback at 29 ESCC setback at 29 ESCC setback at 20 ESCC se
Gi-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving er field. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans sho de with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to fnerence slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventus ong freshman team that finished the campaign 9-0 with an ESCC championship. Trawford did all in his power to halt a now seven-game losing streak, scoring once on a 69-yard receptio a 45-yard interception return. However, the Spartans couldn't slow down Nazareth (7-2, 4-2), which scored 14 points in each of the las arters behind a pair of 100-yard rushers and a passing game that netted 120 yards on just five completic With solid protection from an offensive line of Gage Bonczek, Justin Avant, Paul Lamb, Jarek Harrington chardson, Marian had one if its better offensive efforts in awhile. Trailing just 7-0 in the early going, the Spartans should have known it wasn't their day when a 17-play, 8! ded with a failed fourth-down attempt from the Nazareth 2-yard line. The next long drive netted better results, as the Spartans were more efficient in needing just six plays to rds for a score. Passing plays churned out four first downs on the drive, as Marian concluded the scoring trick Schmidt's 26-yard toss to Emilio Garza. However, Nazareth took some wind out of the Marian sails, as Michael Hillsman (7-for-7 conversion kicke yard field goal to send the Roadrunners into intermission with a 24-7 command. While Marian engineered the two long drives that netted just seven points in the opening half, Nazareth to har's when Crawford single-handedly tried to keep the Spartans in the contest. While Marian engineered the two long drives that netted just seven points in the o	aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclue eventually bel eception and a the last three ompletions. rington and Bi play, 85-yard lays to travel a scoring marci on kicks) boot zareth benefitt Marian snap o ential to 31-7. ack Dillon Bui e to pull Maria more bleak fo hris Taborn	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON Finale court. Ny without leaving every veral Spartans show ESCC decision to cr to rebound eventuall a 69-yard reception s in each of the last th just five completion o, Jarek Harrington ai when a 17-play, 85-1 ng just six plays to transl ncluded the scoring r -7 conversion kicks) ing half, Nazareth be on the first Marian si d the differential to 3 down, halfback Dillou 9-yard score to pull M ngs looked more blea a paydirt. Chris Tabo -21.	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC setback at 23 ESCC setback at 24 ESCC setback at 25 ESCC setback at 26 ESCC setback at 27 ESCC setback at 28 ESCC setback at 29 ESCC setback at 20 ESCC setback at 20 ESCC setback at 20 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC setback at 23 ESCC setback at 24 ESCC setback at 25 ESCC setback at 26 ESCC setback at 27 ESCC setback at 28 ESCC setback at 29 ESCC setback at 29 ESCC setback at 20 ESCC se
Gi-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving er field. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans sho de with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to frerence slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventus ong freshman team that finished the campaign 9-0 with an ESCC championship. Crawford did all in his power to halt a now seven-game losing streak, scoring once on a 69-yard receptio a 45-yard interception return. However, the Spartans couldn't slow down Nazareth (7-2, 4-2), which scored 14 points in each of the las arters behind a pair of 100-yard rushers and a passing game that netted 120 yards on just five completic With solid protection from an offensive line of Gage Bonczek, Justin Avant, Paul Lamb, Jarek Harrington thardson, Marian had one if its better offensive efforts in awhile. Trailing just 7-0 in the early going, the Spartans should have known it wasn't their day when a 17-play, 82 ded with a failed fourth-down attempt from the Nazareth 2-yard line. The next long drive netted better results, as the Spartans were more efficient in needing just six plays to rds for a score. Passing plays churned out four first downs on the drive, as Marian concluded the scoring trick Schmidt's 26-yard toss to Emilio Garza. However, Nazareth took some wind out of the Marian sails, as Michael Hillsman (7-for-7 conversion kicks- yard field goal to send the Roadrunners into intermission with a 24-7 command. While Marian engineered the two long drives of 46, 44 and 34 yards. Hazareth extended its halftime momentum quickly in the third quarter. An interception on the first Marian sond half set up the home team 21 yards away and the Roadrunners quickly extended the differe	nale aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclu eventually bel eception and a the last three mpletions. rington and Bi play, 85-yard lays to travel 1 scoring marcl on kicks) boot zareth benefitt Marian snap o ential to 31-7. ack Dillon Bui e to pull Maria more bleak fo hris Taborn ur possession	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON Finale court. by without leaving every veral Spartans showy ESCC decision to co to rebound eventuall a 69-yard reception s in each of the last t n just five completion b, Jarek Harrington al when a 17-play, 85-1 ncluded the scoring r -7 conversion kicks) ing half, Nazareth be on the first Marian si d the differential to 3 down, halfback Dillon 9-yard score to pull N ngs looked more blea a paydirt. Chris Tabo -21. n its final four posses	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESC setb
Gi-Jana Crawford should have an exciting season to look forward to on the basketball court. However, the senior all-around standout didn't conclude his football career on Saturday without leaving er field. Despite having little to play for on a season-ending visit to playoff-bound Nazareth, several Spartans sho de with their effort. However, an early 21-0 deficit proved too insurmountable, as Marian dropped a 52-21 ESCC decision to fnerence slate winless for a second straight season. The Spartans (2-7, 0-6) will look to rebound eventus ong freshman team that finished the campaign 9-0 with an ESCC championship. Trawford did all in his power to halt a now seven-game losing streak, scoring once on a 69-yard receptio a 45-yard interception return. However, the Spartans couldn't slow down Nazareth (7-2, 4-2), which scored 14 points in each of the las arters behind a pair of 100-yard rushers and a passing game that netted 120 yards on just five completic With solid protection from an offensive line of Gage Bonczek, Justin Avant, Paul Lamb, Jarek Harrington chardson, Marian had one if its better offensive efforts in awhile. Trailing just 7-0 in the early going, the Spartans should have known it wasn't their day when a 17-play, 8! ded with a failed fourth-down attempt from the Nazareth 2-yard line. The next long drive netted better results, as the Spartans were more efficient in needing just six plays to rds for a score. Passing plays churned out four first downs on the drive, as Marian concluded the scoring trick Schmidt's 26-yard toss to Emilio Garza. However, Nazareth took some wind out of the Marian sails, as Michael Hillsman (7-for-7 conversion kicke yard field goal to send the Roadrunners into intermission with a 24-7 command. While Marian engineered the two long drives that netted just seven points in the opening half, Nazareth to har's when Crawford single-handedly tried to keep the Spartans in the contest. While Marian engineered the two long drives that netted just seven points in the o	nale aving everyth ans showed pl ision to conclu eventually bel eception and a the last three mpletions. rington and Bi play, 85-yard lays to travel 1 scoring marcl on kicks) boot zareth benefitt Marian snap o ential to 31-7. ack Dillon Bui e to pull Maria more bleak fo hris Taborn ur possession	52-21 ESCC setback my. ISON Finale court. by without leaving every veral Spartans showy ESCC decision to co to rebound eventuall a 69-yard reception s in each of the last t n just five completion b, Jarek Harrington al when a 17-play, 85-1 ncluded the scoring r -7 conversion kicks) ing half, Nazareth be on the first Marian si d the differential to 3 down, halfback Dillon 9-yard score to pull N ngs looked more blea a paydirt. Chris Tabo -21. n its final four posses	wford pulls in a pass 21 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESCC setback at 21 ESCC setback at 22 ESC setb

	CATEGORY	Marian Catholic	Nazareth
	First downs	14	20
	Rush attempts / yards	27-36	52-286
	Passing yards	226	120
	Pass completions	17	5
	Pass attempts	34	13
	Had intercepted	1	1
	Fumbles / lost	1/1	1 / 0
	Penalty yards	6-44	13-83
	Next	Season over	IHSA Playoffs
NZ- Tucker 3-y NZ- Will Colme Rushing: MC Tucker 17-104	rd run (Hillsman kick), 7:14 third. 45-yard interception return (Taborn kick), ard run (Hillsman kick), 10:16 fourth. ry fumble recovery in end zone (Hillsman 2- Burns 17-51, Crawford 3-8, Montel Blau (2 TD), Love 10-103 (3 TD), Daniel Bako	ı kick), 10:02 fourth. de 1-1, Schmidt 5-(minus vich 6-29, Christopher Si	mmons 4-22, Jonah B	eauduy
NZ- Tucker 3-y NZ- Will Colme Rushing: MC Tucker 17-104 Michael Master Bartels 1-(minu Passing: MC yards, 1 TD, 1 Receiving: M (minus 6). NZ-	45-yard interception return (Taborn kick), ard run (Hillsman kick), 10:16 fourth. ry fumble recovery in end zone (Hillsman 2- Burns 17-51, Crawford 3-8, Montel Blav (2 TD), Love 10-103 (3 TD), Daniel Bako son 1-8, Joseph Citro 6-3, James Eraci 1	kick), 10:02 fourth. de 1-1, Schmidt 5-(minus vich 6-29, Christopher Si -2, Karlas Delano Robin: IT; Burns 1 of 1, 69 yards Garza 3-27 (TD), Christi	mmons 4-22, Jonah B zine 1-1, Doug DiFusc s, TD. NZ- C. Bartels 4	eauduy o 1-0, Ja I of 10, 1

http://www.marianchs.com/athletics/football/football-results-2013.php